DON'T LEAVE THE OLD SHIP

The Negro cannot afford to desert the Republican party. Out of its legislation sprang our citizenship, and out of our citizenship sprang their political supremacy. These are almost indissoluble bonds, for if broken by the Negro, he goes adrift; if abandoned by the party, it falls asunder and sinks to defeat. The Republican party is before the nation and the world as the author and supporter of Negro freedom, Negro suffrage and Negro citizenship. The Negro is the political beneficiary of the party, and he cannot break away or go against it without being accused of base ingratitude.

We are still Republicans, and we shall still lay our claim at its door and insist that we are friends, and it cannot profit by making us weak. If we are dissatisfied with individual faults, we cannot hope to gain by taking revenge on the whole party. Grumbling, threatening and "digging up the hatchet" will only irritate the sore and retard the healing. If we have friends let us hold on to them with hooks of steel. We must not leave the old ship, for all outside is nothing but sea.

Oklahoma City has just passed a segregation law. Race prescription is running wild. The fundamental rights of life, liberty and property are being utterly disregarded. But the tide must come. There will be a day of reclamation.

COUNT UP THE COST

We will never submit to the enforcement of the Segregation laws. We will fight on, harder and harder, until this injustice is removed. We will lay aside every weight and selfish longing, every personal ambition, and make for the goal.—The St. Louis (36c) Argus.

That sounds very good, Brother Mitchell, but when you get in the thickest of the fight and your life is in danger, and the cause you are promoting needs money and then needs it again and again, you will find that the Negroes will leave you. Better count up the cost good before you begin. You need men and money.—Colored Alabama.

LOOK WELL BEFORE YOU LEAP

Negroes should be cautious about engaging in the agitation for a new state constitution. A new instrument that would be likely to meet with popular approval would be pretty sure to contain certain open or veiled provisions affecting the rights of the colored citizens of the commonwealth. If the new constitution should appear more generous than the old toward human liberty, it would be sure to meet with repudiation at the hands of the white voters.

We understand that all of the public school teachers have been asked to contribute to a fund to help carry the proposition. We hereby warn them to look well before they leap. Remember the warnings that the Argus gave concerning the new city charter. Watch the loop holes.

KIEL AND MCKELVEY INDORSED

BY 234 WARD REPUBLICANS

Lane Tabernacle, at 3566 Fairfax, was crowded to standing room Thursday night. The occasion was a mass meeting to advise the Negroes against deserting the Republican party. Stirring speeches were made by W. A. Hawkins, Thos. Beverly, Wm. H. Robinson, J. H. Bradberry, Dr. C. H. Phillips, J. R. P. P. Donovan and Herbert T. Meadows. The large audience, by an overwhelming vote, endorsed Mayor Kiel and Commissioner Jas. N. McKelvey. R. H. C. Snyder was chairman.

REPUBLICAN WARD MEETINGS

The Republicans will hold meetings in the various wards, during the next few days, to select delegates to the congressional conventions, where delegates to the Chicago convention will be elected. The 23d ward meeting is the first, taking on Convent Ave., between Vandeventer and North. The 6th, 7th, 16th and 21st wards will hold meetings Monday night. These wards are in the 11th district and the Negroes will not be satisfied unless one Negro delegate and one alternate are elected.

CAROLINE'S NEWS

The boy's head, under the direction of Mr. L. E. Baker, is fast progressing. Several more instruments were purchased this week, and they will soon have a complete band. Success be theirs.—Mrs. Nath. E. Howard and little daughter, Laura, who have been sick for a week or more, are recovering rapidly.—Mr. Geo. Britton was bled from Christiana Baptist Church Sunday.

The new church directory will go to press April 1. All ministers who wish to have their churches entered should call at this office on or before April 1 and give their order of services. We charge a fee of only 25 cents to pay cost of setting. All churches failing to reply to this notice will be dropped from the list.

WEEK DAY LENTEN SERVICES AT ALL SAINTS CHURCH

Wednesday night, April 4, at 8 o'clock, Rev. James Wise, rector of the Church of the Holy Communion, will preach his second sermon. Friday night, April 7, Rev. J. Courtney Jones, rector of Emmanuel Church, Old Orchard, will be the speaker. All are cordially invited to attend.

LANE TABERNAACLE NOTES

Sunday is Communion Day. The pastor wishes to have a large membership present. He will preach at both services. All are invited. There will be a "Conundrum Party" and guessing contest at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Rose, 11524 Fairfax Ave., for the benefit of Lane Tabernacle Church, Friday, April 7, 1916. Prizes will be given to the most successful guesser.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

The skating party, given by the Choral Club, Friday evening, in the gymnasium, was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Skating will be conducted in the gymnasium every Friday evening through the month of April, from 7:30 to 10:30.

A popular mass meeting was held Sunday afternoon in the gymnasium. Much real interest and enthusiasm was expressed by the speakers.

The Walden Alumni Association met in the Association Reading Room Tuesday evening.

A new club, to work for Y. W. C. A., was organized last week. It is called the "Silver Tea Club," president, Mrs. Viola G. Elgin; vice-president, Mrs. Henry Davis; secretary, Mrs. E. T. Bush, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Minnie Mollah; assistant secretary, Mrs. Leona Newton; treasurer, Mrs. James Woods. Their first social affair will be a card party, to be held at the Y. W. C. A. Saturday, April 15, from 2 to 6 p. m.

With such a splendid group of women the Y. W. C. A. is looking forward with great expectation to the work of the Silver Tea Club.

Mrs. S. V. Bigger, of Nashville, Tenn., Miss Mildred Eyer, of this city, Mrs. George Ray, of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mr. Leonard Brannock, of East Saint Louis, were pleasant visitors to the association this week.

Yesper Service will be held Sunday afternoon in the main building at 4:30. You are invited.

TABERNAACLE BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

By Beate Page

Baby Sunday was well carried out and the service was delivered by Rev. Grant Edwards. The helpful sermon on "Faith," will be continued. Dr. Schattien, of Fortney, Ark., delivered a very inspiring sermon when he was with the club last week. He will be in the city for a few weeks. Among our visitors Sunday were, Atterbury Geo. L. Vaughn and Mrs. Geo. Smith Williams, of Little Rock, Ark., and our president, Mr. Craven. The Young People's prayer meeting every Tuesday night is growing strong and much success is being derived. The play entitled "No Man Want" was a very pleasing affair and brought much enjoyment to all. Dr. Brooks remarked, "Such a play is one that everyone's life." Tabernacle has been blessed both financially and in the growth of the church, and we are pleased with the neighborhood feeling that exists between St. Paul and Tabernacle. The Theodorian play, a strong and grand play of its kind will be repeated April 15th.

The ladies will begin April 9 to Miss Elizabeth Fitts and many others will take part in the exercises. The grand reception at Tabernacle in honor of their pastor, Dr. Moody and wife, formerly of Pine Bluff, Ark., was quite an enjoyable and grand affair. The guests arrived early and the pleasant visit spent evening will long be remembered. Dr. and Mrs. Moody were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents among them were large bouquets of flowers and a lovely croquet set, and a number of other gifts. The address delivered by Rev. B. H. Cole deserves special mention. Dr. and Mrs. Cole were accompanied by Mrs. A. B. Gaines, president of Berea, and Mrs. P. Oliver, president of Antioch Association. Prof. R. A. Austin, director of Metropolitan A. M. E. choir; Dr. Richardson and wife, and many others. Space will not permit all names.

Third Corinthian Baptist Church, 15th and Bidwell streets—Sunday prayer meeting, 5 p. m. Preaching, 11 a. m. and 8:30 p. m. Sunday school, 10 a. m. Prayer meeting, Tuesday night. ST. JAMES NOTES

Dr. Richard D. Stinson, principal of the Atlanta Normal and Industrial Institute spoke at the eleven o'clock service.

The evening service was well attended. The pastor, Dr. Peck, preached a splendid sermon. Theme: "Overcoming difficulties by Divine Aid," which was well discussed.

The evening great studies. At five o'clock the Junior Endeavor meets in the Sunday-school room under the leadership of that queen of Junior work, Mrs. Fannie Peck. There is an enrollment of almost one hundred. The Intermediate Endeavor is growing with Mrs. Maud Kelley at its head, who is a capable leader, and an earnest worker. It is held at six o'clock every Sunday in the city. They have splendid programs every Sunday. Last, but not least, is the Senior Endeavor, which meets in lecture room at six o'clock. This Endeavor has grown to a membership of 85 and is still growing.

We have excellent leaders every Sunday and good singing. The members on grounds were highly entertained Monday night, March 27, with stereoscopic views and moving pictures of Ford College. Though it was a typical March night, the audience was well filled with an appreciative audience.

St. James is a church of activity. We cordially invite you to worship with us.

ANTIOCH BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Our revival services opened with a powerful sermon by our pastor. The theme of his text was, "Christ the Light of Our Salvation." Last week was a week of serious prayer. Every service of the church is spiritually interesting. Sunday was prelude day at our Sunday-school. An excellent program was rendered, by the teachers and pupils. The pastor, Dr. Peterson, was held at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Lattie B. Smith, last Thursday. Sister Smith is president of our Mission Band and the Band take their sincere sympathy.

Services during the day were very good. Sermons for noon and evening by the pastor, Dr. J. T. Coston, were most excellent. A visitor came at both services. The pastor, Dr. E. Williams, of Kansas City, Grand Master of the B. F. P. A., who, at the forenoon service, favored us with some very splendid and encouraging remarks. The Sunday-school, at 1:30 o'clock, also the B. Y. P. U., at 6:30 o'clock, were well attended and everybody seemed interested in the topics and lessons. The church work generally, and throughout, under the splendid management of Dr. J. T. Coston and his most efficient corps of Deacons and lady choir workers, is in first rank, with any in the city of St. Louis. Come and see. Everybody welcome to any or all of our services.

ST. OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH

By M. Holliday

Last Sunday services were largely attended with members and visitors. The Second quarterly conference of the Antioch Sunday-school Convocation was held at St. Olive No. 1, 1429 N. 12th St. Pastor D. W. Morris presided and the services were most interesting. The sermon was very spiritual, inspiring and powerfully delivered.

RAILROAD MEN

Dr. W. Sampson Brooks will preach a special sermon to railroad men at St. Paul Chapel, corner Lottin' and Vandeventer Aves., Sunday, April 9 at 11 a. m., on the subject, "Realities of Life."

Mr. R. Butcher, of Chicago, Ill., will read a special invitation, "My Mother's Prayer." The wives of the Pullman Porters and Dining Car Waiters have been requested to serve as ushers on this occasion. Everybody cordially invited.

LEONARD AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

We enjoyed splendid services all day last Sunday. The Sunday-school reached a new high record in its financial report. We are proud of our young people and the progress they are making. The B. Y. P. U., at 6:30 every Sunday evening, is doing a great work and we invite you to come and see. We are in this great work. Pastor Damant has suffered from a severe cold for the past week. We hope him a speedy recovery.

Picture of Booker Washington This little card depicts a picture of a group of people, with a picture of Booker Washington, who was the recipient of a surprise birthday party, March 23, given by Mrs. Mary B. Brown, of 562 Pontiac street, Dayton, Ohio. The surprise was indeed a surprise. As Mrs. McCauley is very much impressed with the circle of society in which she is to move in this, her new location. She having received kind and warm greetings from all. There were among the guests persons who had been so very attentive to her sister, Mrs. J. H. White, during her many times of illness, before and since her removal to Dayton. To each of these persons Mrs. McCauley presented a ticket to the recital of Mr. Richard R. Harrison, on March 24.

The party was a brilliant affair.

SOUTH KINLOCH NOTES

By E. C. Winston

Dumber Circle, No. 5, meets on the first Friday afternoon of each month at the brick schoolhouse in South Kinloch. This is a Teachers, Parents and Children Welfare Association, and it is doing our neighborhood a world of good in a social way. Mrs. Amanda Myers, president; Mrs. V. M. Andrews, secretary; Mrs. J. B. Abernethy, treasurer; Mrs. Wm. Allen and family, of Ferguson, spent Thursday with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lewis. Mr. B. L. Gentry, of 2419 Pine street, St. Louis, was out last Friday, planning improvements for his new country home on the Florissant road, near Ferguson, and South Kinloch. W. W. Drake has a new frame house on Evergreen Blvd., nearly finished. Mrs. B. W. W. Drake and her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Suberland, both of 4360 Olive Street, are visiting the "Cato" home and expect to move in next Tuesday. They intend to build at once. That Democratic Club is doing a-boring. They couldn't rake up enough members to say the Lord's Prayer under the seal, if any. We hear that the Edwards and Williams families are organizing a Republican Club near their own. Better be guided by Father Noah and build an ark for it.

POPLAR BLUFF NOTES

TESTIMONIALS FROM SOME OF THE PATRONS OF TRESSA HAIR PARLOR

Griffin Foster, Proprietor Phone Branch 1535 Wm. Clineau, Manager

Miss Willena Whitley of 3330 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes:

I am a strong advocate of the Tressa Method. When I began to use the Tressa Treatment my hair was very short, stubby and uneven. I had many friends who told me it was improved. I used it wonderfully and I heartily recommend "Tressa," the Magic Hair Oil, to all who desire a growth of thick, long hair in a short time. I am still taking the Tressa hair oil and am more than pleased to submit my picture to show actual results of the Tressa Method.

Miss Willena Whitley of 3330 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes:

I can say gladly and truly that the Tressa Method has been a great blessing to me. I worked magically for me. One year ago my hair was not more than three inches long and my hair was very short, stubby and uneven. I had many friends who told me it was improved. I used it wonderfully and I heartily recommend "Tressa," the Magic Hair Oil, to all who desire a growth of thick, long hair in a short time. I am still taking the Tressa hair oil and am more than pleased to submit my picture to show actual results of the Tressa Method.
